

Spring Newsletter 10
20/03/09

REDMILE CHURCH OF ENGLAND PRIMARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents,

Comic Relief

The final amount raised was £100.50; many thanks for your generous support. There's a lovely picture in the Melton Times to look out for!

Viking Challenge Update

The committee met for the first time since the AGM, to start planning for this year's event. A representative from the new charity 'When You Wish Upon a Star' was there, and is looking forward to working with the whole school as the year progresses.

Reminder: Viking Challenge presentation
2.30pm school hall, next Wednesday, 25th March.

Recent purchases from the Viking Challenge funds have included; benches, chairs and various accessories for the school hall (such as soap and paper towel dispensers, picture frames etc); 20 new children's bibles; guided reading sets for each class; D.A.R.E programme; disco and circus skills; 'Cool Science' day for all pupils; violin taster sessions for Years 2 and 3; "Working Space Theatre"; visualiser; Darkfire media/film education; plus the usual subsidies for swimming and forth coming trips.

Open Session for New Starters

A reminder that this is next Monday, 1.30pm - 3.00pm, for all those of you with children starting in September. If you haven't told us you're coming, please do so early Monday morning.

Trips

If you haven't already done so, please send in the reply slips next week.

Our Website

Thanks to those of you who have left a message. Glad to know you're finding it useful. All newsletters, including old ones, can be found in the parents section if you should need to refer to them.

Cinema Event

Leaflets about the forthcoming screening of 'August Rush' on Friday 27th March, should now be in book bags.

Dove Cottage Appeal

Dove Cottage would be very grateful to receive donations for their new charity shop – they are particularly short of ladies and girls clothes. The shop and tea room open on Saturday 28th March and are by the canal at the bridge, which takes you to Dove Cottage. If you have any old items you wish to donate, please contact them direct on 01949 860303.

Sports Club

Please note that sports club is cancelled next Tuesday, 24th March, due to Area Sports trials.

Barkestone Church Service

John Bartlett and Mike Chaldecott will be doing a Mothering Sunday service in Barkestone, on Sunday, at 10.30am.

Have a nice weekend – especially to all the mums out there (hope you get breakfast in bed on Sunday!!)

Yours sincerely,

Mrs J.V.Hopkins,
Head Teacher

Learning together, having fun.

www.redmile.leics.sch.uk